

To Whom it May Concern:

Satellite Radio is a for-profit service that is now proving public services to its subscriber base. It has done so in keeping with the long tradition of radio providing timely and important information to its listener base.

Allowing satellite radio , specifically XM Radio, to continue to provide this service will support that tradition in radio, and allow XM to provide coast-to-coast coverage for its listeners.

Thanks for listening.

Jay Schechter